LEVEE

Broke Flooding a Large Area

The Governor Stopped All River Traffic.

MISSISSIPPI RISING AT AN APPALLING RATE

MANY FORCED OUT OF HOMES

A Miracle if Levee at Memphis Doesn't Break—Water To Go Higher Yet.

New Orleans, March 16.—The river gauge today at noon reads 19.2 feet. There has been no rise at all since Saturday morning. No breaks are reported anywhere in the state.

New Orleans, La., March 16.—(Bulletin)—The city levees are still holding. That at Enosley burst early this morning and 100 square miles are flooded. The sun is shining here for the first time in ten days. The governor today stopped all river traffic, the boats causing the waves to wash over the levees. All trains are from one to six hours late.

Memphis, Tenn., March 16.—The Mississippi river is rising now at an appalling rate. The story told by the gauge this morning was a rise of six-tenths of a foot since 7 o'clock last night, 1.2 feet during the past twenty-four hours, and 2.4 since Saturday morning. The gauge now reads 39.1. This is 1.8 foot over the highest water mark on record and 6.1 over the danger line. The crest of the flood is now between Memphis and New Madrid, Mo., and is not due to reach this city until Wednesday. The indications are now that water will go much higher than the engineers predicted, 40 feet. The strain on the St. Francis levees above this city, is now something tremendous and it will be a miracle if they hold. The water is going to such a height that it will overtop the levees and thus destroy their effectiveness.

At Hollybush, Ark., where a force of 600 men is working day and night, the water has commenced to run over the levee and is being held in check only by placing sand bags for a distance of 1,000 yards. One hundred and fifty men with material were rushed there this morning. The engineers think this levee can hold one foot more of water.

At Marion Landing, 8 miles above Memphis, the water is at the top of the levee for a long stretch and 150 men were sent there today to build the levees higher. Men are being rushed from the plantations in the country inside of the levees and every effort possible is being made to triumph over nature.

Weakness has developed at the Huntington short line levee, and 110 convicts were rushed there today to help fight back the waters. The levees all along the line between Memphis and New Madrid have but small leeway and it is this which is carrying terror to the hearts of thousands and which is greatly increasing the number of refugees. Nearly five miles of the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley tracks are under water near Lakeview, Miss.

Four street railway lines in North Memphis are under water and nine streets are flooded to a depth of several feet. The inundated section of the city presents a true Venetian scene with gondolas gliding everywhere. Hundreds of families have been forced to leave their homes.

Booth Returns To London.

London, March 16.—General Booth of the Salvation army has returned here in good health, but will be compelled to rest, owing to the accident to his leg, which he met with on the evening of his departure from the United States.

The average passenger haul on steam railways has increased from 27 to 27 miles since electrical lines have been competing for suburban business.

"GUILTY OF MURDER," SAYS NEGRO JOCKEY

Admission of Colored Man Startles Judge, Who Tells Jury He Hates To Take Responsibility.

Chicago, March 16—"Bud" Higgins, a negro jockey, on trial for the murder of Mrs. Annie Butler arose in court in the midst of a defense made by his attorney and turned to the jury said:

"I murdered her. I am guilty."

Judge Horton could hardly believe the words.

"Do you realize, Higgins, that I may sentence you to be hanged until you are dead and that there will be no appeal from my sentence?" Judge Horton asked.

"I do," Higgins said. "I killed her and I can't die but once."

"In the 16 years that I have been on the bench," Judge Horton said to the jury, "I have never witnessed a scene such as this, nor has anything ever affected me as this has done. I almost wish that the responsibility was not mine."

Chicago, March 16.—For the fourth successive time the Democrats of Chicago this afternoon nominated Carter H. Harrison as a mayoralty candidate. The present mayor's record now equals that of his famous father who was nominated four successive times.

TREATY

Will Probably Ratified on Tuesday—The Democratic Caucus Took Action on Monday.

Washington, March 16.—The Democratic caucus this morning decided to unitedly support two amendments to the Panama Canal treaty. One is to ensure police control by the United States of the canal strip and the other is to include Mexico with the Republics of Central and South America in the declaration contained in the treaty that the United States does not desire to acquire part of their territory. No attempt was made to bind the Democrats as to their votes on the ratification and each individual will pursue his own course. More than half of them it was made evident at the caucus will vote for the treaty even after all the amendments are voted down and this will ensure the ratification of the treaty tomorrow.

Washington, March 16.—Railroad interests are doing their utmost to defeat the Panama Canal treaty. In fact they are openly bragging that it will not be ratified when it comes to a vote tomorrow. They claim that enough Democratic votes have been secured by them, added to the six or eight Republican votes from the central and Pacific coast states to kill the treaty. The anti-canal lobby here is said to be in the employ of the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific railroads and is working in the Gould-Harriman interests.

CHILD

Showed Place of Hidden Cash

When She Was Threatened With Death.

MASKED MEN TOOK PLENTY OF TIME

FOURTEEN MEN IN THE CROWD

After Binding Inmates They Got $10,000 in Cash and Securities—Knew Premises Well.

Wapakoneta, O., March 16.—One of the boldest robberies ever perpetrated in this county took place Saturday night just north of Crider'sville. A band of armed and masked men, estimated at 14 in number, about 10 o'clock at night entered the house of Mrs. Jacob Reichelderfer, an aged widow, whose husband, a well-known farmer, died last year, leaving her a large amount of real and personal property. She is afraid to trust her money to the banks and the robbers guessed correctly that she kept her money in the house.

With her are living Blanche Reichelderfer, a grand-daughter aged 12 years; George James and his wife and their son, Joseph James a young man.

When the robbers first appeared the old man showed fight, but the robbers knocked him down and then proceeded to blindfold and bind him and the two women hand and foot with ropes and tied them all to beds and furniture in separate rooms. They took a watch and ring from the little girl, and then pointing a shotgun at her breast told her if she did not tell where the money was they would blow a hole through her. She at first refused, but finally consented if they would return her watch and ring, which were presents from her mother, she said. This they did.

In the meanwhile some of the robbers lay in wait for Joseph James, who had not yet returned from town and when he appeared they knocked him down, blindfolded and bound him hand and foot and tied him in the kitchen. Then set the little girl free.

They then secured $7,000 worth of notes and securities and $1,200 in cash from an old chest upstairs, and ransacked the whole house from top to bottom looking for a secret door supposed to lead to a closet in the wall.

They took possession of all the jewelry and silverware, and asked old man James what he had done with the money he received for a horse and buggy the day before. They also secured a month's wages belonging to Mr. James, which he had in his pocket. Taking their time they went to the cellar and divided the money. Part of the gang left about midnight, jumping into a rig and drove north.

The others, finding plenty of wine, cider and eatables in the cellar, helped themselves liberally and remained until 2 o'clock, having a good time. They then tied the little girl and left. All the victims were discovered bound and half dead from fright by a neighbor, who happened to call this morning.

The robbers called all the members of the family by their first names, and seemed to be perfectly familiar with all the surroundings. It is supposed that part of them came from Crider'sville and vicinity, and part from Lima, O., but their identity is unknown.

JUDGE DAY

Had a Good Night and His Condition Says Doctor Hardin is Improved Monday.

Washington, March 16.—Associate Justice Day of the Supreme Court, who is ill at the Arlington hotel with pneumonia is improving. At 10 o'clock this morning Dr. Hardin issued this bulletin:

"Justice Day had a good night and his condition is quite encouraging this morning."

There are about 20,000 automobiles in use in the United States.

NO TAX CONSCIENCE FOR HETTY GREEN

Woman Millionaire Doesn't Pay on Any Home and Doesn't Want One to Pay On.

New York, March 16.—Hetty Green is without a home. This calamitous situation is not due to any dispossession nor has Mrs. Green lost her fortune. To tell the truth she does not want a home. Taxpayers have to be paid where you have a home.

"I am simply rotting between here and Chicago," Mrs. Green said today. "I was proved non-resident of New York several years ago, so of course, I don't pay any taxes here. I have had friends here in this city for many years and they allow me to come here and get my mail and telegrams. Since my husband died," continued the richest woman in America "I have had no special home of my own. My daughter is in Bellows Falls, Vt. My son is in Texas. My business calls me here and to Chicago, so I simply keep going back and forth."

It was suggested that some of the rich men of New York had declared themselves to be non-residents, but because of their large realty holdings here had volunteered to pay taxes on a certain amount of personality. Hetty Green was asked if she approved of this policy.

"Just let me tell you," she replied firmly, "they won't get any of my money in that way. The others can do it all they want to, I pay what I have to, and no more."

SUDDENLY

RECORDER J. O. BROWN DIED ON SUNDAY

He Suffered a Nervous Collapse Brought on by Disturbed Political Conditions in Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, March 16.—Recorder J. O. Brown of this city, who tendered his resignation to Governor Pennypacker on Friday last, died suddenly at his home here Sunday.

The immediate cause of Recorder Brown's death was nervous collapse, superinduced, it is believed, by the unusually perturbed condition of politics in the county.

Mr. Brown was always delicate physically and had to make frequent trips away from home for his health, but his death was entirely unexpected at this time. He was born near Tarentum, this county, in Jan. 1846.

PRICE

For Getting Rid of a Person

Fixed By Hossey at $100 It Is Said

POLICE THINK THAT VICTIMS NUMBER OVER 50

OFFICERS ARE ON A HOT SCENT

Evidence Secured in Three New Cases and More May Soon be in Hands Of Law

Philadelphia, March 16.—"While we have not proceeded with other cases to the extent that we can make arrests, as we have done in the Danz case, we are within striking distance of the climax in at least three cases. These may even yet be barren of results, but on the other hand, they may lead to the arrest of a number of per-

William G. Ganz.

This statement was made by an official who is prominent in investigating the charges against George Hossey, the aged herb doctor, who is now held without bail on a charge of conspiring and aiding in the murder of William G. Ganz.

"Can you estimate the number of cases that will grow out of this investigation?" he was asked.

"In view of the fact that Hossey practiced in the same way in the same neighborhood for 30 years the number may run from 50 to 100. It may be only an estimate, after all. I will say, however, that from the large number of incriminating letters that we have discovered and the admissions made by Hossey himself we expect to run out some of the most startling cases that have been heard in Philadelphia in years. This investigation will be carried to a finish, no matter what the discouragements even though it may take months."

The detectives are searching for a mysterious woman who, the neighbors of Hossey say, called at his home many times at night. The visits were unusually numerous in the month preceding Hossey's arrest. Inquiries made today in the vicinity of Hossey's home showed that the herb doctor's visitors were, for the most part, women. The manner of the callers was described as peculiar and not at all like that of persons who came for medical treatment.

It is said that the bodies of two persons named in letters found in Hossey's office will be exhumed this week and contents of the stomachs analyzed. If poison shall be discovered there will be an exhumation of the bodies of all those named in the letters vary but little in their terms. All show that Hossey had a fixed rate, $100, which he charged for getting rid of a troublesome person.

Lorenz' Assistant.

New York, March 16.—Dr. Frederick Mueller, the assistant of the great bloodless surgeon, Dr. Lorenz, has returned to this country to look after the final steps in the cure of Lolita Armour. He will locate permanently in Chicago.

Three Killed.

Springfield, Ills., March 16.—Another disaster has occurred in the mine at Cadiff, where three men lost their lives last week. Three more victims have been added to that list by the latest explosions. Two explosions occurred in the mine, one Sunday and the second this morning. The last explosion killed three men and blew the tower to pieces.

Bank Closed.

Washington, March 16.—The First National Bank of Jacksonville, Fla., was closed today by order of the comptroller of the currency, J. W. Norvall. National Bank examiner, has been appointed receiver.

John J. Noonan, police sergeant at St. Louis, today committed suicide.

YOUNG WOMAN KILLED BY INSANE LOVER

Pretty School Teacher Shot by Rejected Suitor Just Released From An Asylum.

Providence, R. I., March 16.—Miss Julia Toombs, a pretty school teacher, was shot and almost instantly killed Sunday while passing along Dexter street on her way to church.

Her murderer, William S. Morse, had fallen violently in love with her. When his advances were rejected, Morse made dire threats and was discovered in the vicinity of her house several days later pacing the street and muttering to himself. An investigation of his mental condition was made and he was committed to the insane asylum, from which he was released several months ago.

Morse went to the home of Miss Toombs last night, and finding no one at home retired to a nearby lot and slept there all night, resuming his watch for Miss Toombs this morning. When she appeared he fired four shots at her. She died within a few minutes.

IN DIVIDENDS

Rockefellers Receive Millions as Holders of Standard Oil Stock—J. D. Gets $8,000,000.

New York, March 16.—Two of the profitable monopolies owned by John D. Rockefeller have sent out dividend checks aggregating $21,500,000. Of the total amount $20,000,000 represents the Standard Oil dividends for the second quarter of the year, being $20 for each share of the $100,000,000 trust, while $1,500,000 is for dividends to shareholders of the Consolidated Gas company.

John D. Rockefeller who owns $40,000,000 of the Standard Oil stock will receive a check for $8,000,000 while his brother William, who owns only $15,000,000 of the stock will receive a check for only $3,000,000.

The declaration of the Standard Oil dividend shows that John D. Rockefeller's income from this source only for the last 90 days has been $88,888.88 a day.

If continued for the rest of the year at this rate he will receive in dividends from Standard Oil for the four quarters $32,333,331.20.

DR. HOLDEN

Easily Secured Nomination for Mayor Of Zanesville on the Democratic Ticket Saturday Night.

Zanesville, O., March 16.—Only a medium vote was cast at the Democratic primaries Saturday night. Dr. James L. Holden easily won over Lewis H. Lane, his opponent. The result of the primaries clearly defines the issue of the campaign as that of Sunday baseball and Sunday selling of intoxicants.

The nominees are: Mayor, James L. Holden; president of council, Jay W. Frazier; city auditor, Charles W. McShane; city treasurer, Harry J. Knapp; city solicitor, S. M. Wynn; police judge, John W. Conrath; board of public service, Peter C. Schabach; James T. Irvine, William J. Conley; councilmen-at-large, John J. Frick, John P. Quinn, Francis M. Donnelly.

EXPLOSION

At Toledo Monday Morning Caused Death of One and Fatal Injury Of Two Others.

Toledo, O., March 16.—While the engineer, watchman and water tender were starting fires for the week at the Toledo rolling mills this morning, the boiler exploded. J. E. Thompson, aged 35, married, a water tender, was instantly killed and Engineer Malvern Updegraff and Watchman Henry F. Fust were both fatally injured. The boiler was demolished, Updegraff and Fust are burned from head to foot by escaping steam and Fust has several broken bones. None of the other employees were present when the accident occurred and the cause is unknown.

The long-distance automobile race this year will be from Paris to Madrid 330 miles.

LETTER

In a Defense of Mrs. Hull

Pastor Morally Certain the Woman

HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH BURDICK'S MURDER

SOME NEW FACTS ARE EXPECTED

Mrs. Hull and Others to be Placed on the Stand to Explain Some Discrepancies.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 16.—It is almost certain that Mrs. Hull will be recalled today in the Burdick inquest. Miss Marion Burdick, the murdered man's eldest daughter, will also be called to tell what she knows of the sundered family relations.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 16.—It was decided this morning not to open the Burdick inquest till 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Rev. Levi Powers, pastor of Mrs. Hull has written a public letter in defense of Mrs. Hull. He said today that it seems improbable that the real facts in the Burdick mystery will ever be brought to light. He says he is morally certain that Mrs. Hull had nothing to do with the murder. He concluded, by saying he was very sorry one person with sufficient motive was dead. "Mr. Pennell," he said, "is dead. His conduct in life and death does not merit sentence. Burdick claimed Pennell robbed him of his wife and ruined her reputation and now Pennell has left the suspicion of murder on the mother of the woman Burdick alleges Pennell wronged."

Buffalo, March 16.—By witnesses who will probably be sworn this afternoon the Erie county officials expect to elicit contradictions to several statements made on the stand by Mrs. Maria Hull.

The evidence to be presented at today's session of the inquest or, perhaps, at Tuesday's is likely to be sensational. The authorities have had it in their possession for some time, and have been holding it in reserve. They came upon it unexpectedly and refuse absolutely to disclose its nature.

Time was taken in the murder of Burdick and in covering the body, removing the clothing, preparing the lunch—which was, without doubt, the detectives declare, placed in the "den" as a deception—and in cleaning away the stains which must have been left on door knobs, gas cocks and other places.

Other things will be brought out, all of them important links in the unsubstantial but perfect hypothetical chain of evidence some of the detectives have woven about persons now under suspicion.

Interest will largely center today in the testimony of Dr. William H. Marcy Mrs. Seth Payne and Mrs. Burdick. It is the intention of Judge Murphy to put them all on the stand, but it is likely that it will be impossible to do so.

Thomas Byrnes, former Superintendent of the New York Police Department, and probably the most famous of living detectives, consented with some reluctance, to discuss some phases of the Burdick murder mystery. As a result of a long conversation, the famous detective chief's opinion may be expressed in the belief that the Burdick murder was not the crime of a woman, though a woman was probably a potent factor in the motive for the crime.

KNAPP CASE

Hamilton, O., March 16.—Alfred Knapp, the confessed stranger, had his preliminary hearing before Mayor Bosch today. The defense presented no witness. The story of his confession was retold and Knapp was bound over to the grand jury without bond.

The proportion of policemen to population is one to 507 in Paris; one to 408 in London and one to 458 in New York.

A WINNING TICKET

Nominated by the Two Thousand Democrats Who Turned Out to the Primaries on Saturday.

A good turn out of Democratic voters at the polls on Saturday brought forth good results in the nomination of a ticket possessing such strength and popularity that its election on the first Monday of April is a foregone conclusion.

To the number of two thousand the Democratic voters of Newark city and township turned out and the will of the majority has been impressively expressed in making the ticket for the coming spring election after the manner of the time honored custom of a fair and honestly conducted primary election held in every precinct of the city. Thus nominated, it is now the ticket of the Democratic party of Newark city and township, for which the solid vote of the party will be cast in the battle with the common enemy on the first Monday in April.

It goes without saying, that the ticket is a good one from top to bottom, and it is the people's ticket, because it was nominated by the people in a fair and open election in which every Democratic voter in the city and township had just as much voice and weight as every other Democrat.

Of course, all the candidates had their friends, but while all could not be nominated, the fact stands out with great distinctness that the primaries of Saturday were conducted with the most perfect fairness, and the result is such a clear expression of the will of the majority that it well deserves the united party support that will be given.

It is not the result of a packed convention, controlled by a few political bosses after the manner of the Republican conventions. It is the free and untrammelled work of the independent Democratic voters themselves who have expressed their wishes and their preferences uninfluenced by dictation from any source whatever.

While the Advocate will from time to time during the campaign, have considerable to say pertaining to every candidate on the ticket from top to bottom, it is fitting to state in this connection that the candidates at the head of the ticket are men of exceptional merit and qualifications, whose integrity and ability are such as to at once command the absolute confidence of the city's best citizens, regardless of party affiliations.

In the very nature of the situation the issue of the campaign will largely turn on the contest for Mayor. That fact was well understood by a large majority of the voters who participated at the primaries on Saturday, and the drift of city politics has been in that direction for several weeks.

For this reason the nomination of 'Squire A. J. Crilly for Mayor, possessing the high qualification and fitness for the office that he does, is both wise and timely. His election is already conceded by many intelligent Republicans. But to merely say that 'Squire Crilly will be elected is not by any means the full meaning of the truth. The size of his majority will absolutely be unprecedented in the majority elections of Newark city.

The fact stated in the opening paragraph, too, will bear repeating in this conclusion. That the entire ticket will be triumphantly elected. True, the Democratic organization must be perfected and active campaign work must be pushed to the finish, but the Democracy can do this with heart and courage for they start in the contest with practically assured victory.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because of its deceptive nature. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y. on every bottle.

NOVEL HOUSE PARTY.

Indoor World Trip as a Bridal Tour
In Brooklyn Residence.

It was a lovely honeymoon that young Mr. and Mrs. John Clyde Oswald spent after their wedding on Jan. 28, and that without leaving Brooklyn, which is now their home, says the New York Herald. Mr. Oswald, who is a publisher, married Miss Marie Bosche on that date at her home in New Bremen, O., and their only wedding journey was the one to Brooklyn.

But in their honor the other evening Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Hall Moore of 43 McDonough street, Brooklyn, invited society folk to go on what they called "a bridal tour" with them, or "around the world in eighty minutes."

As the guests entered the Moore residence they were greeted with an imitation baggage room, piled with trunks and bags well placarded. At a ticket office, with Mr. Moore posing as ticket seller, they drew their coupons for the round trip and bought their current literature at a well stocked news stand, which proclaimed for sale "The American Sprinter—Ohio and Return."

From the waiting room the guests started on their journey, each two being assigned to start from a certain country, which was represented by a room. The California of the forty-niners was the dining room and here the game played was poker. In the music room, representing an ocean steamer, all embarked on the good ship Matrimony for a trip across the Pacific, and the fedium of the journey was relieved by lively games of ring toss.

Reaching the harbor of Japan and China, the library (quaint with decorations from these countries), the travelers played fan tan, and when they came to India, or rather, the drawing room turned into a veritable jungle, they played at shooting wild beasts, represented by parlor trunks.

Obelisks and pyramids in the billiard room proclaimed the land of the pharaohs. When the travelers reached Italy, they recognized the laundry, with the sinks placarded as "Lake Como," "Venice" and the "Adriatic sea," and here they played pingpong in the shadow of an ominous Vesuvius, the laundry stove. Germany and the game of dominoes were found in the second floor, and nearby was France, the Moulin Rouge being represented by a closet door bearing the legend "Closed by Jerome."

England, with various objects humorously representing the show places of that country, came next, with eucaly as the game played, and the guests finally returned on the good ship Matrimony, and supper was served. Robert F. Day was the guide, and in each country was a woman dressed in characteristic costume.

Early Marriages.

"Do not," said the little man at the club, "do not marry too young."
"And what do you call too young?" inquired the young man to whom the advice was so solemnly tendered.
"I married my wife," replied the little man, "when she was but seventeen. She was a pretty thing and hadn't got her growth. And now," the little man paused to sigh, "now she's two feet taller than I am!"
And he sighed again.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

FIND HIDDEN MAN AND TWO BOOKS.

A MYSTERY OF FORT FISHER

[Original.]

One of the unsolved problems of the storming of Fort Fisher related to Commander Hervey. It will be remembered that there was a naval attack by bluejackets which was repulsed with considerable loss. Hervey's body was found in a depression in the sand in the extreme advanced position reached by his men of the Junonia. A handkerchief (not Hervey's) had been used for a tourniquet to stop the flow of blood from the commander's left ankle, which had been shattered and the artery cut by a rifle ball. The wounded man must have been killed subsequently by a fragment of a shell which had struck him in the head. Who had saved the captain in the first instance? It must have been some one who had been killed in the action, for no one claimed the credit.

Some time before the Junonia, which Hervey commanded, joined the fleet she was refitted at the Portsmouth navy yard. Commander Hervey's family were there in one of the officers' residences, including his daughter, Irene, a girl of seventeen. There was a petty officer—not commissioned, but an enlisted man—named Edgar Foristall, who was cockswain of the captain's dingy. He used to carry Irene in the dingy to and from the Junonia. On such occasions she sat in the stern of the boat beside the cockswain. Though very young, she knew well the difference in station between enlisted men and officers and that it was not becoming to have anything to say to the cockswain. When any of her family, associates or officers were in the dingy, she never made a remark to young Foristall, but when none of these was present she waxed quite friendly. Later Foristall was in the action at Fort Fisher, was severely wounded and was promoted for bravery.

Ten years passed. One day Irene Hervey was present at the launching of a United States cruiser. A superintendent of one of the departments of the works that had built the vessel stepped up to her and asked her if she remembered him. She did not, and he informed her that he was the cockswain who used to carry her in her father's dingy to and from the Junonia. Irene's face lighted up at once. She was especially pleased at meeting Foristall as a citizen and not as an enlisted sailor.

"I have never seen you," she said, "since the Junonia left us for the attack on Fort Fisher. I saw the notice of your promotion for bravery, however."

"Oh, everybody was brave on that occasion," said the young shipbuilder. "But it is pleasant to be singled out from the throng."

At that moment the ship was launched and the remarks were interrupted. Nevertheless they were the beginning of a renewed acquaintance on a different basis from that of blue-jacket and captain's daughter. Irene had treasured a remembrance of the black-eyed boy who used to sing out the orders to his oarsmen so lustily, though he had changed so much in appearance that she had not recognized him. The new man proved so attractive to her that her heart slipped into his possession. Then she was pleased that he offered her his own in exchange. But what was her delight when he opened the case of his watch and showed her a little lock of her hair that he had surreptitiously cut from her "pigtail" one morning when she was on his dingy.

They were engaged, and in time the day was set for the wedding, but unfortunately, one evening when Irene was in a bad humor she fell a remark indicating that she still had some of the feeling that a captain's daughter might have for a blue-jacket. Foristall at once broke the engagement. Irene when she had cooled longed to recall him, but it is not an easy thing for a woman thus to humble herself. So she pined and moped till her mother found something for her to do in getting up material for a biography of her father to be published with those of other naval officers who had fallen in the civil war.

She was thus engaged when she came upon a packet marked "Papers found on Commander Hervey's body." Opening it, she took out several letters, shuddering that they had been drenched in her father's blood, and examined them in turn. Suddenly she came upon a few scarcely legible words on the back of one of the letters scrawled with some blunt instrument, possibly a finger tip:

"Cockswain saved me. They will hit me yet."

Like a flash from heaven the secret attending her father's death burst upon her. For years she had wondered who was the man who had carried her father to a less exposed position and had bound up his wound. Was he young or past middle life? Was he dark or fair? Why had fate deprived her of the satisfaction of taking his hand and expressing something of what she felt with her lips and her eyes? And now she knew that this man was the young tar who had stolen a lock of her hair, whom she had wounded by a reference to their former relative positions.

"Come to me at once," she wrote. "I love the blue-jacket better than the shipbuilder."

After the first transports of the meeting were over she said:

"Tell me, Edgar, why you kept the secret."

"It was because I loved you and knew that our stations were too far apart for you to return my love. I would not place you under an obligation nor be content with your thanks."

The German Kaiser is still enthusiastic about automobile, says the Berlin correspondent of the New York World. He is often seen about Berlin or Potsdam in a variety of horseless vehicles. Being of a martial disposition it is only natural that he should seek to adapt motor cars to the requirements of war. He has at least one that he uses on his visits to troops, inspections and other military expeditions, and it is reported that he intends to use it at the next grand army maneuvers.

The Sure Road to Success.

Lies smooth and wide before the man or woman who knows and whose knowledge is practical, up-to-date and drawn from authoritative sources. But even a well stored mind contains the merest fraction of what one needs to know. In order to keep thoroughly informed on current topics and to make proper use of the knowledge acquired by study, a READY REFERENCE LIBRARY is an actual necessity. No matter how complete your schooling, or how much experience you may have had, if you intend to keep up with the march of progress in this busy age you must have

at your elbow who knows and will instantly tell you the thousand and one facts, new or forgotten, that render the life of a studious, progressive person one of continuous interrogation. Such a "FRIEND" is a thoroughly reliable ENCYCLOPEDIA; but it must be COMPLETE, CONCISE, and UP-TO-DATE, sufficiently full in treatment but not too profound, dealing in all things in the light of the present day knowledge, compact in form, convenient in arrangement and moderate in price. Realizing that the future of many thousands of ambitious young men and women actually depends upon the possession of just such a work—AMOS HARROLD, of ALLISON CO'S STORE, 16 N. SECOND ST. has completed arrangements with one of the largest Educational Publishing Houses in the East to supply the

to his customers and friends in Licking County, during the next few weeks at $55 PER SET. In half leather binding, and on small easy payments if desired.

THE IMPERIAL REFERENCE LIBRARY is unquestionably the very best of general encyclopedias. We know of no other that covers so wide a variety of topics—so many salient facts crowded into so little space. It thoroughly covers the field usually embraced in six separate reference works, viz: ENCYCLOPEDIA, GAZETTEER, ATLAS OF THE WORLD, DICTIONARY OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE, LIBRARY OF BIOGRAPHY and a HISTORY OF ALL NATIONS, all the essential features of which are skillfully combined in one beautiful set. This immense mass of educational matter, aggregating 7,500,000 WORDS equal to the contents of 36 ordinary books is categorically arranged under one common vocabulary, rendering it perfectly easy to refer in an instant to any desired subject. These great features COMPLETENESS, CONCISENESS, READY REFERENCE give this new LIBRARY a distinct character that separates it from all others.

THE EDITORIAL STAFF CONSISTS OF NEARLY 300 EMINENT SPECIALISTS AND REPRESENTS AN INVESTMENT OF OVER $2,000,000. It is not one of BUT THE ONLY NEW AND STRICTLY UP-TO-DATE REFERENCE WORK IN PRINT.

WORDS OF PRAISE FROM PEOPLE YOU KNOW

FROM D. B. PURINTON, President West Virginia University, Morgantown, W. Va.—I have recently purchased the "Imperial Reference Library" and am delighted with the work. Notable among its excellencies are the following:

FIRST—It is judicious and well balanced. Topics are wisely selected and proportionately treated. Due attention is given to interests that are American and present as well as to those that are foreign and past.

SECOND—The work is strictly up-to-date. Events of the past decade and even of the past year find their proper place in its pages. This is the only work within my knowledge which gives trustworthy information concerning such events.

THIRD—It is a busy man's work. Encyclopaedic articles are brief and to the point. One does not have to skim over a great area to get a little information. There are four similar works in the same room and yet this one has been consulted far more than all the others combined.

FROM REV. W. L. WELLS, D. D. PRESIDENT WEST LAFAYETTE COLLEGE—"I recently purchased the "Imperial Reference Library" for the reading room in our College, and after a careful examination of the same, I do not hesitate to pronounce it just what the name stands for. Some of our teachers and students, at first thought it was not superior to several works of its class, but after a careful comparison with two of the best works, the universal verdict is, that on account of certain unique, special features, it easily RANKS ABOVE THEM ALL."

FROM REV. J. D. MOFFAT, D. D., L. L. D., Pres. W. & J. College, Washington, Pa.—"I have examined the "Imperial Reference Library" and find the work well done, very full and up-to-date. The information is expressed in the briefest space and amply illustrated. It seems to me a work well adapted to meet the needs of the present generation."

FROM ALSTON ELLIS, PH. D., L. L. D., Pres. Ohio University, Athens, O.—"I have purchased and have had opportunity to examine with care the "Imperial Reference Library" and can give testimony to its great value as a reliable work of reference. Its compactness while diminishing the cost, is not secured at the cost of omitting matter of moment. For ready reference it is much superior to works more pretentious and expensive. The excellence of the plates, portraits and maps leave nothing to be desired in those forms of information giving; and the statistics compiled with pains taking care from the most reliable sources furnish data that is up to date and made easily accessible. Not the least important feature of the work is the "Pronouncing Vocabulary" which is complete and evidences scholarly skill in its preparation. The whole publication is one which, by reason of its appearance, matter and cost, will appeal strongly to the interest of the student and general reader as well."

FROM HENRI G. WILLIAMS, A. M. Dean of the Normal School Athens, O.—"After careful examination of the "Imperial Reference Library" I am convinced that it is reliable, down to date, well printed and well bound and a safe investment for the student and general reader."

From C. W. SUPER, Ph.D., LL.D., Prof. Greek, Ohio University, Athens, Ohio. "I have spent some time in examining the "Imperial Reference Library" and find it a very useful compilation. It contains not only the stereotyped information that ought to be in every work of the kind that aims at a fair degree of completeness and which each successive generation ought to know, but a great deal of new matter that is important to every one who wishes to keep abreast of the times. I cannot see how anyone who is conversant with the necessary limitations of an encyclopaedia can be disappointed in this work."

From D. J. EVANS, A. M., Prof. of Latin, Ohio University, Athens, Ohio: "I have examined the articles in the "Imperial Reference Library" and find the information therein accurate and sufficiently complete to give the reader who seeks general knowledge, a clear understanding of the facts pertaining to the subject. I find also that the encyclopaedia gives to a degree that surprises me, information regarding subjects and places that are regarded too unimportant or obscure to receive attention in most books of reference. In my opinion, this work meets the needs of those who require ready, accurate, and full knowledge of subjects, men, and places."

From A. A. ATKINSON, M.S., Prof. Physics and Electrical Engineering, Ohio University, Athens, Ohio: "The "Imperial Reference Library" appeals at once to the busy man, in any business or profession. He can find in it about what he wants, on any subject, put concisely and so well to the point that no time is wasted, wading through unessentials. It is brought right up to the present year, thus giving the latest information on any subject of importance. It is scientific and accurate. The full page portraits, general illustrations, and colored plates and maps are features of the greatest value. The paper and binding are of excellent quality. In short, it possesses just such features as the busy man would specify for an encyclopaedia which he intends to use."

From HON. E. M. P. BRISTER, Ex-Probate Judge, Newark, Ohio: "With great pleasure and profit I have carefully examined the "Imperial Reference Library" and find it to be all and more than it promises to be. It covers a larger field of knowledge and information than any similar work with which I am familiar and presents the latest discoveries, inventions, arts and sciences concisely and accurately. It is well printed and bound and fully illustrated. It will recommend itself to the scholar and man of affairs, and its price considering its quality, is reasonable."

From REV. B. F. PATT, Pastor Baptist Church, Newark, Ohio: "The Imperial Reference Library" is the latest work of its kind offered to the public and the fact that it is the up-to-date Encyclopaedia makes it the one most to be desired by all students and business men. I take pleasure in recommending it."

From PROF. S. L. BEENEY, Principal Newark Business College, Newark, Ohio: "I have purchased the "Imperial Reference Library" for use in the Newark Business College, because it contains the world's knowledge in a nutshell—boiled down ready for use. There is Literature, History, Art, Science, Invention and Discovery, all up-to-date. It is also a Pronouncing Dictionary of the English Language; a Gazetteer of the World; a comprehensive Dictionary of Universal Biography, and is beautifully embellished with a large number of illustrations, maps and charts among the finest in the world. "There is no royal road to learning," but this work lightens the burdens of life by making the way of knowledge, less burdensome, easy, instructive and fascinating. It is a necessity to the general reader as well as the professional in whatever sphere of life."

From JOHN ALFRED TAIT, A.B., Prof. of Civics, Phys. Geog. and Arith. High School, Newark, Ohio: "Since purchasing the "Imperial Reference Library" I have given it a careful examination, besides using it almost daily and have found it to be everything you represented. It is a valuable reference work with complete and concise descriptions. It is modern and up-to-date and just the work for a busy man. I have never used a reference work which pleases me as much, and can commend it highly."

DEATH

OF MRS. JOHN ANKELE SUNDAY MORNING

Particularly Sad Circumstances Surrounding Death of a Young Wife And Mother—Funeral Tuesday

Miss Mary Ankele, wife of Mr. John Ankele, the barber, died at her home 210 West Church street at 9 o'clock Sunday morning after an illness of only ten days with typhoid fever.

Up until a week ago last Wednesday, Mrs. Ankele was in robust health and death seemed indeed a great way off from her. Just three weeks before the dread disease had carried away Miss Mary C. Webb, who lived at 48 West Church, the second house west of the Ankele home, and no one in the neighborhood appeared better able to withstand the attacks of the contagion if such accompany the disease, than Mrs. John Ankele. Yet in less than two weeks she was taken down, and almost from the first she was desperately ill. Preparations were made to withstand a siege of the disease, the most skillful medical attendance and the services of an expert nurse were secured to combat the dread enemy.

In a few days symptoms of the gravest alarm were noted, every resource known to skilled science was exhausted to save the young mother's life, but on Saturday night the vital powers showed signs of weakening, and the inevitable could not be but postponed for a few hours.

The death of Mrs. Ankele is surrounded with circumstances especially sad. She was only 28 years of age and leaves a husband who has been in poor health for some months and three children, Carl aged 7, Alfred aged 5 and Martha aged 2 years.

The deceased was the daughter of the late Abiam Flory and is survived by her mother, two brothers, Attorney J. A. Flory of Newark, Louis Flory of Granville township, three sisters, Mrs. Melissa Wilson of Clinton, Mo., Mrs. Ellis Jones and Mrs. P. S. Phillips of this city. Two half sisters, Mrs. Ed. Ferguson and Mrs. Daniel Fuller of Buffalo, N. Y., also survive.

The death of Mrs. Ankele just three weeks from that of Miss Mary Webb, considering the propinquity of the Ankele and Webb homes, has caused much general speculation as to the cause of the disease in these two cases.

It is thought that Miss Webb contracted the disease by eating freely of raw oysters. The two houses did not use the same water, so that as a cause, the drinking water is eliminated from the proposition. It is a question whether there is not some local contributing cause common to both cases, but this has not yet been determined.

The funeral will take place from the home Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. T. L. Kiernan of the Plymouth Congregational church. The funeral and burial will both be private.

Would Not Insure Him.

Insurance Companies would not insure the Rev. J. W. Yeisley because he had Kidney Trouble.

Mr. Yeisley was much discouraged till a friend recommended Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and it cured him. Mr. Yeisley writes:

"My kidneys and liver were in bad condition and I was anxious for relief. I had tried many remedies without success. I bought a bottle of 'Favorite Remedy,' which effectively proved its merit. The best proof that it has completely cured me is my recent acceptance by four different life insurance companies."

The Rev. Mr. Yeisley is the pastor of the First Reformed Church of St. Paul, Ohio, and is as well the editor of the St. Paul Dispatch.

There is no question that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the best and surest medicine in the world for diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, as well as the weaknesses peculiar to women. It quickly relieves and cures inability to hold urine and the necessity of getting up a number of times during the night and puts an end to that scalding pain when passing urine.

THE W. C. T. U.

At the meeting held on Tuesday, March 10 the devotional exercises were opened by Mrs. Parker, who read the 15 chapter of St John for the lesson 1-7 verses "I am the true vine and my Father is husbandman. If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you." Every word of this chapter of 27 verses were spoken by our Savior. Mrs. Parker dwelt earnestly upon the many blessed promises.

"Bringing in the Sheaves," was sung with Mrs. Stella Anderson at the organ.

A short program followed these exercises which had been arranged by Mrs. C. M. Hare in honor of the birth of the National President, Mrs. Lillian Stevens.

Lib reading from the 10 chapter of Romans 1 verse "Brethren My Heart's Desire and Prayer to God for Israel is that they might be saved." Song, "My faith looks up to thee."

Prayer, Mrs. B. T. Patt. A sketch of the life of the National President, by Mrs. Jennie T. Sisson. Mrs. Sisson spoke very forcibly and with much feeling of Mrs. Stevens whom she said had been chosen by Francis Willard to take up and carry on the work that she was compelled to lay down. Of the many noble self-sacrificing women with whom she had come in contact none had perhaps, been so well calculated to take the place of our promoted leader. Retrospect, twenty years with the Union Signal. The story of a bit of copy, Mrs. Stella. "Little Things," Mrs. C. M. Hare.

A short time was given to business when several communications were read. The flower mission superintendent was authorized to send flowers to the sick. Reports of rescue solicitors were received. The Licking county W. C. T. U. Rescue Home is situated at 230 11-1 street, Woodside and will be opened on March 18. No program has been arranged, but the public is cordially invited to inspect the building. Donations of furniture and provisions will be thankfully received.

OF SUPERVISORS ON MONDAY
MONDAY

Vote of Saturday's Primary Canvassed and Good Speeches Made by Several Men.

A meeting of the Democratic Committee of the city and township of Newark, the Supervisors of the Democratic Primary election of Saturday and Democrats generally was held in the Convention room of the Court House on Monday at 10 o'clock.

On motion Jehiel Tedrick was called on to preside at the meeting and Messrs. F. L. Ferguson and Wayne Collins acted as secretaries. The chair announced that the object of the meeting was to canvass the votes cast for the candidates at the primary election held on Saturday and to announce the result of the election.

After the result had been announced speeches were called for from the various candidates, and other Democrats who were present.

Squire A. J. Crilly, the Democratic nominee for Mayor, made a ringing speech thanking the party for the nomination, and said that if he was elected Mayor he proposed to give the city the best administration possible.

Mr. J. P. Lamb said he appreciated the honor that had been conferred on him; that he had always been loyal to the party and that he expected the party to be loyal to him, and that if elected he would do his whole duty.

Mr. S. B. Livingston thanked the people for the confidence they had shown in him, and said that if elected he would do his best to fill the office acceptably to the public.

Mr. A. P. Taylor thanked his friends for the support they had given him for City Auditor, and said that he had been voting the Democratic ticket for forty years and proposed to keep it up.

Mr. Phil B. Smythe the candidate for City Solicitor, made an earnest speech in which he said that all the candidates should work together in harmony and unity with the party for the success of the whole ticket.

Mr. Rees R. Jones said he highly appreciated the honor that had been conferred on him by his nomination, and would suggest that there was still another fight ahead, and that victory to be won, could only be done by all working in unison.

Charles Hager made some earnest and pertinent remarks, suggesting that the committee and all should work together for the success of the ticket.

J. M. Farmer made an earnest speech in which he thanked his friends for their support, and also thanked the party generally, and said that if elected they would have no cause to regret his nomination.

Judge E. M. P. Brister made one of his characteristic speeches in which he urged unity and harmony, and prophesied Democratic victory. He said that the ticket was an excellent one from top to bottom and that the conditions were favorable for a sweeping Democratic victory at the polls the first Monday in April, if all Democrats would act together.

IMPORTANT MEETING

DR. GLADDEN
EMINENT COLUMBUS MINISTER
SPEAKS TONIGHT

Revival Services Were Commenced Sunday at Plymouth Congregational Church in This City.

On Sunday revival meetings were begun at the Plymouth Congregational church which promise to be of more than usual interest. The church has secured Dr. Washington Gladden, the eminent Columbus divine, to speak tonight. Dr. Jackson of Columbus, who is a very able speaker, will be here later in the week.

The pastor, Rev. T. L. Kiernan, will speak Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. Dr. Jackson Thursday and Friday evenings. In connection with these speakers the church has secured the services of the noted evangelistic singer, Mr. P. O. Gates of the Moody School of Chicago, who is a man of excellent ability, having had ten years experience in evangelistic work which has been very successful. He recently completed a series of successful revival meetings held by the noted Evangelist C. C. Smith, at the old college town of Wheaton. More than 70 conversions resulted from those services. Rev. Mr. Townner of Chicago, says: "Mr. Gates is the best man in the evangelistic work today." Mr. Gates will continue with his work as leader at the Congregational church indefinitely.

LUNG
and throat troubles always appear trivial in the start. You can start an acre of fire with a square inch of flame, while a teaspoonful of water would drown the starting match.

NEURALGYLINE FOR THE NERVES

is the enemy of all neuralgic and other nerve troubles. Accept no substitutes for it. Neuralgine does not cure or relieve all diseases. It only RELIEVES PAINS CAUSED BY NEURALGIA AND OTHER NERVOUS TROUBLES. No matter how bad the case is, it must succumb to the all-powerful influence of Neuralgine. Neuralgine, by soothing the nerves, restores them to their normal state.

Neuralgine is absolutely harmless. It is a combination of health giving chemicals. Try a box of it if you are one of the great army of neuralgic sufferers. ONE PELLETT WILL BRING YOU RELIEF WITHIN TWENTY MINUTES. Read what these representative people have to say of Neuralgine.

I have been a great sufferer from neuralgia. Neuralgine has effected a permanent cure in my case. Miss E. V. EVANS, Sistersville, W. Va. I have suffered for over a week with neuralgic pains in the head, unable to sleep and nearly crazed with pain. Thirty minutes after taking one NEURALGYLINE tablet I was completely cured. Mr. J. K. SIKK, St. Paul, Minn.

Your suffering can be relieved too! Every first-class druggist in town sells Neuralgine. Price, 50c a box. If you find that Neuralgine is not as represented, money will be cheerfully refunded. Samples free on request.

MURDER AT COLUMBUS.
Columbus, March 16.—Henry Stand and, colored, was shot and killed by Henry Mas, a negro politician, at his home, 1500 E. 12th street, last night. Later Mas was shot in the left leg and arm by a colored woman, the wife of the trouble.

MURDEROUSLY

OFFICER JAMES CALLAN WAS ASSAULTED

Joe Thrapp Was Lodged in Jail For The Crime—Officer Callan Talks of the Affair.

Police Officer James Callan was murderously assaulted, and out in a frightful manner by the razor edge of a knife in the hands of Joe Thrapp, on Saturday afternoon about four o'clock.

Officer Callan was on duty at Precinct C, Second Ward, at the Foss carriage shop on South Fifth street, during Saturday's primary election, when he was out. He gave an account of the trouble, at his home on South Fourth street where he was seen Monday.

Mr. Callan made some remark to Supervisor E. D. Everts, which Thrapp took up, and saying that no policeman could make him shut up. Callan then told him to keep quiet as he was making considerable noise, and was answered by an oath from Thrapp, who struck at his face with his right hand, in which he held a large pocket knife. The keen edge struck the officer over the left eye and as it passed over the flesh to the bone, from the eye diagonally across the face just missing the nose, and through the upper lip and gum, ending at the right side of the mouth.

The desperado then struck several more times at the wounded officer, who grappled him cutting his coat and vest in a number of places, like a razor.

Thrapp then ran pursued by Callan, who tried to reach him with his mace. Failing in this the policeman drew his gun and shot into the ground Thrapp stopped and Callan then took hold of his man and started to the city prison, rapidly growing weaker from loss of blood which flowed in a stream. When between Snelling's and Melz's meat shops on West Main street, he met Mayor Forry, David Stauch and Roy Cole, and to them he turned over the prisoner, almost two squares from the scene of the crime.

Callan then went to Dr. Day's office and the blood was stopped temporarily, and he was then taken home in a cab, and Dr. D. M. Smith closed the gaping wound by taking 26 stitches.

Thrapp was turned over to Officers Zernig and Carroll, who locked him up at the police station. This morning he pleaded not guilty to a charge of cutting with intent to kill, and his trial was set for Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Officer Callan's magnificent nerve in arresting his man and taking him nearly two squares after having been so terribly wounded, is the subject of univocally favorable comment.

Thrapp has been in trouble in Newark before, and served one term in the Ohio Penitentiary with the prospect of "doing another."

FINE CAR

ON THE NEWARK GRANVILLE ELECTRIC LINE

Track Will be Laid Clear Around the Square Within a Short Time.

A fine new car numbered "50" was put on the Granville line Sunday, and adds much to the completeness of this equipment. The car is of the most modern pattern, large and roomy, and has the newest appliances for comfort to both crew and passengers.

The car has a capacity of between 125 and 150 passengers. It is a combination baggage and passenger car of the regular interurban style. It is painted a "Big Four" yellow. The car was built at the Jewett Car Works.

As soon as the weather will permit the work of "placing" tracks clear around the public square will be commenced. The interurban cars will then all pass along North Park Place and some changes may be made in the route of the Buckeye Lake cars in and out of the city, but nothing definite about the streets over which the interurbans will run can yet be learned.

Who Became Gay in a Main Street Saloon Was Thrashed and Sent To Jail.

A stranger, who has been arrested for drunkenness three times within the past few days, giving the name of Noonan, and his home in Virginia, went into George Johnson's saloon at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and being drunk deliberately smashed the glass in one of the swinging doors. He left the place and returning began to abuse Mr. Johnson and attempted to strike him. The latter picked up a handy club and hit him a couple of times over the head, inflicting several severe wounds which bled very freely. The stranger was then taken to the city prison and locked up.

Frank Gates and George Bader went to the reservoir this morning for a week's duck hunting expedition in which a number of sportsmen are going to join.

One dollar a yard for velvet carpets

Have you ever used velvet? The Carpet business of today seems centered in Velvet Carpet—ninety per cent of the Brussels sold are velvets. Why?

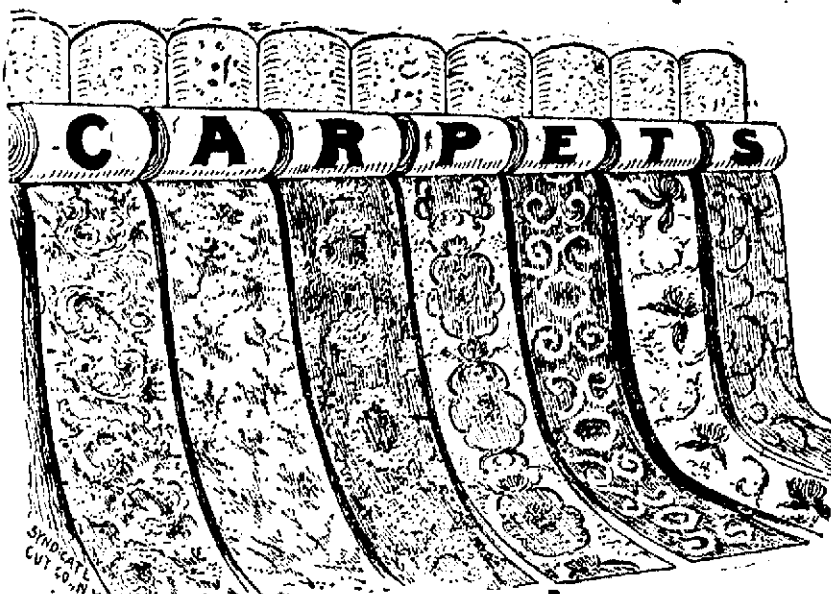

Because—it's impossible to get the softer blendings in other carpets.

2—They stand hard wear better and more of it than any other carpet.

3—They make a richer floor covering than any other carpet.

4—Our velvet is made of worsted—not wool. It's the only worsted velvet carpet sold in the city at $1.00 a yard. 5—They will not mat from service, but the pile being worsted they retain their place. 6—Through long service in public places they have demonstrated their wearing qualities to be better than any other $1.00 carpet made. A range of 24 patterns of this one make, with the other new carpets now all displayed.

FLOYD NORRIS

PROBABLY FATALLY HURT AT REFORM

Wild Mexican Horse Threw Him Off
Sunday Morning Causing Severe Internal Injuries.

Reform, O., March 16.—Floyd Norris, a well known young man of this place, was probably fatally hurt Sunday while riding a wild Mexican horse.

Mr. Norris, who is 27 years of age, employed by Z. McKnight, a mile south of Reform, was riding the wild horse Sunday morning attempting to break him. The animal threw the rider off twice but Norris pluckily remounted and soon afterward was tossed over the horse's head into a ditch.

Dr. Dawson of Hanover, who dressed the man's injuries, found no bones broken but he was internally hurt and fears are expressed this morning that he will not recover.
